Can't move the beds.

I'm approaching Death's door.

Is this it?

Row of Redheads

He turned into a foreign
black substance.

This is the greatest artifact created by
Dragon Reincarnation
100, 100.

Target's
trauma blood detected
without formation of the Aqueous body.

Extremely weak
enough to detect
from the body.

The blood of the Delta is very similar to that of Drapers.

I can move it!

While it may seem like a
wonder drug...

...an overdose
of this

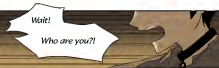

...can eventually
become a poison.
With this amount,
you could have died
in a week, even if...

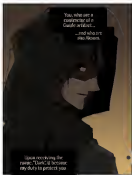

PAT!

...you hadn't
been consumed
by the whole.

That human lost the battle against the robot. All of her life's dreams got crushed
thus ending her life.

The strange force
ending her body was
what I had decided.

As a result, it
went back to
the earth.

Thank you, but I
was able to save you
before your body
got taken over.

*This is Chief Recorder

*This was written while she was working on her report
on magic beasts at the west side of the kingdom.*

What surprised me upon my arrival to the Hunter's Village was that...

...the vast majority of the population was made up of outsiders.

I had been expecting someone or others waiting for a chance to poison, but there was none of the sort.

What intrigued me most was that all of the evening repartees were going about their day as if though there was nothing wrong. It really puzzled me.

Shortly after my arrival, I met the village forest hunters.

I confided my friends with them without encountering any problems.

Mountain forest hunting isn't too different from regional hunting.

They're pretty much
the same as any other
animal, including the fact
that you can only kill them
with dragon artifacts.

The majority
of them take cover
for the night.

so you don't have to worry.

*They also showed me
how they hunted, which
helped with my report.*

Take note of
their sleepings...

and movement
patterns.

But the longer I traveled with them, the more my suspicion grew

Why

did the reporters that had come...

and the tourists from the kingdom...

*...choose to stay in
the Hunter's Village...*

...and lead this lifestyle?

That question bothered us.

*Until the moment we arrived
at their campsite.*

"Papa!"
